Paige's boyfriend Shane has been doing upholstery for several years. Like her, he became interested in leather work early and is already quite accomplished. I purchased this comfortable old chair second-hand, but the vinyl upholstery was ripped. Shane recovered the chair in leather and did a great job!

This is a photo of the very first autograph I ever signed, on the page featured my work in Tyler Beard's "The Cowboy Boot Book." The year was 1992.

This year I was back at the same event with my own book, "The Art of Leather Inlay and Overlay."

The same man came by my booth with a copy of my book and asked me to sign it. We both remembered the first autograph and enjoyed recreating the old photo.
